Customer Service Representatives (CSRs) will staff Service Centers during training and the summer to fall transition (August 31 – September 20, 2015), the 2015 – 2016 academic year, and the spring to summer transition (June 11 - June 18, 2016).

Service Centers are open year round, including on some University holidays, to support residents and receive mail. Staff teams split coverage of break and holidays over the year. Shifts vary based on staff class schedules and availability. Work includes hours Monday through Friday 8am-8pm with occasional weekend work from 12pm – 7pm on Saturdays and Sundays. Occasional work prior to 8am or after 7pm may be scheduled to prepare for large arrivals or departures from term to term.

Position Summary

As an employee of UHDS, CSRs are expected to accomplish the primary objectives of UHDS to engage our students, enrich their lives, and help them thrive. Service Centers are located throughout campus and serve on campus scholars and residents in Arnold Dining Center, Marketplace West, McNary Dining Center, and Orchard Court.

The Service Centers provides a wide range of support and services to guests, residential students, staff, and parents through the staff via telephone, email, and face-to-face interactions. The duties for a CSR vary depending on the shift and the Service Center assigned during that shift. As a primary location for student housing and dining questions, the Service Centers strive to be a “one-stop shop” for on-campus residents.

The Service Center Representative contributes greatly to the success of UHDS as part of the Operations Unit, which oversees assignments, international student arrivals, transitions, and other processes for on campus housing. CSRs assist in meeting operational needs and customer service requests for residential guests and students. Service Center staff work as a team to prepare keys for each resident, perform key audits and issue rekeys, collaborate with Operations staff on charges, and serve as a resource for guests during their stay on campus. Service Centers process mail and over 55,000 packages per year for on campus residents.

University Housing and Dining Services recognizes the importance of learning both in and out of the classroom, and supports the concept of education as an individual as well as a community experience. Our primary focus is service to OSU students. We strive to provide our students, faculty, staff, and guests with safe, economical, on-campus living and dining options that are convenient and comfortable. We offer a variety of living and dining options in fifteen residence halls, three dining centers, and a limited number of family apartments. Our department is an auxiliary enterprise which is funded solely by customers who use our services – we receive no state or tax dollars. We work to maintain the highest educational and service standards for our customers.

University Housing and Dining Services is committed to an appreciation of diversity, and fosters an open, respectful, and enjoyable living, learning, and working environment. A personal and professional commitment to providing excellent customer service and creating inclusive environments is a core value of University Housing and Dining Services. CSRs are expected to affirm and uphold policies that help create and maintain non-discriminatory campus and living group environments. One must be attentive to issues related to multiculturalism, sexism, racism, gender, sexual orientation, and disability. As an employee of Oregon State University, CSRs are perceived as a representative of the University in one’s relationships and contacts, both on and off campus. CSRs are expected not to engage in activities that may jeopardize one’s credibility as a staff member or activities that make the University legally vulnerable.

Minimum Qualifications

Maintain an active student status: http://oregonstate.edu/fa/manuals/stu/506

- Must be enrolled in a high school, community college, or university;
- Must be engaged in academic coursework and activities that are directed at obtaining a degree (as opposed to coursework taken for personal interest or enrichment); and
- Must meet the applicable minimal enrollment standards below to be considered by the educational institution she/he is attending as a diploma or degree-seeking student:
  - 6 credit hours per term for undergraduate and post baccalaureate students
  - 12 credit hours per term for undergraduate international students
  - 3 hours per term for graduate students officially admitted to Graduate School (not an international student)
  - 9 hours per term for graduate students officially admitted to Graduate School and who is also an international student
- Maintain a minimum 2.5 GPA per term

This position requires good judgment, critical thinking skills, motivation, self-starting abilities, energy, commitment, caring, self-discipline, knowledge of campus resources, sensitivity to racial and cultural diversity, and common sense. Overall job effectiveness is tied to the ability to establish and maintain credibility and good rapport with all guests, residents, and fellow staff members, while offering the highest quality of customer service.

CSRs are expected to affirm and uphold University policies that help create and maintain non-discriminatory campus and living group environments. They must be responsive regarding issues of multiculturalism, sexism, racism, gender, sexual orientation, lifestyle, and disability.

Due to the nature of the work-load, CSRs are expected to work during the most critical weeks of each term. These weeks include, but are not limited to, all opening and closing weeks before and after each term for resident check-in and check-out. CSRs are also responsible for attending all summer/pre-opening training, and one in-service session per term, as determined by supervising professional staff.
