- Upon departure, guests must place linen in the bag and take it and their pillow to the designated linen drop off location.
- Towel service available for an additional fee.

Towels Only Set

- Includes two towels and a washcloth.
- Towels and washcloth placed on bed.

Additional linen needs

For an additional fee, we will happily provide extra linens or services for your group.

Room Type Information

- Furniture: All rooms are equipped with extra-long twin beds, desks and chairs, and closets or wardrobes.
- Suite-style rooms: West Hall rooms have sinks, and two rooms are adjoined by a bathroom with a toilet & shower. Tebeau and Halsell Hall have two, three, or four-room suites that share a small common space and bathroom.
- Traditional/standard rooms (all other buildings): Bathrooms are located on the floor, with individually-stalled showers. For guest comfort, we recommend bringing flip flops and robes for those staying in traditional rooms.
- No Air Conditioning: Please suggest participants bring a fan for air circulation in the room and to draw cool air in at night.

Hall Availability for Summer 2024

- Bloss Hall and the AB wing from the ground floor through second floor in Weatherford Hall will be unavailable. Hallsell Hall, Finley Hall, and West Hall will have very limited availability.
- For groups wanting to stay in the International Living Learning Center, please contact us directly at uhdsresconf@oregonstate.edu to discuss your options.
